Dr. Michael Nissenblatt is presenting "From Here to Eternity," an engaging lecture on aging and longevity Sun., Sept. 11th at 8pm. The lecture will take place at the Temple B'Nai Shalom in East Brunswick.

Please call 732.251.4300 x225 for more information and to purchase tickets for the event. In November, Dr. Nissenblatt will put his running shoes on again for his 13th NYC Marathon. He continues in dedicating his efforts to the Aubrey Fund, which supports research for and the care of children with leukemia. Take a look at Dr. Nissenblatt's fundraising page!

Dr. Edward Licitra is presenting "New Discoveries in Cancer Treatment" on Friday, October 28th at 12pm in our East Brunswick office. Call The Wellness Community at 908.658.5400 to register. Join us for this interesting program which will also include a question and answer period.

September 22nd is Advocacy Day to Stop Cancer Care Cuts with concerned citizens visiting Capitol Hill to send a message to Congress. The 2012 Medicare Physician Fee Schedule threatens severe cuts to medical oncology, diagnostic imaging, and radiation therapy. Participants who make the trek to D.C. will visit with members of Congress to make their case for the cancer community. If you cannot participate in the Advocacy Day at Capitol Hill, there are ways you can help from home. You can obtain and spread information via social media on their Facebook page and Twitter account. You can also visit the Community Oncology Alliance website for more information.
